

Academic Status

Academic Status - The largest number that replied were tenured faculty but with significant numbers of those in clinical track and tenure track, but not yet tenured.

What is your gender?

Gender - There were approximately equal numbers of females and males, in each academic status.

Which category below includes your age?

Age categories - There were approximately equal numbers of those in 40's, 50's, 60's.

Are you officially designated as working 1/3 time or more in research?

Those in research - most faculty with 1/3 or more in research are tenured or in tenure track.

Would you like a mentor assigned to you?

Like mentor assigned - most of the 70 who would like a mentor assigned are in tenure track, but about 1/3 are in the clinical, non-tenure track.

To what extent do you believe that you would benefit from receiving formal training and continued development in mentoring skills and techniques?

Benefit from mentoring - about two thirds expressed belief that they would benefit from mentoring across tenure and non-tenure tracks.

My mentoring efforts have made a positive difference in the career of others.

Mentoring efforts have made a difference - About 75% felt that their mentoring efforts have been worthwhile.

I intend to seek out opportunities to mentor others over the next six months?

Seek out opportunities - a majority indicate interest in seeking out opportunities to mentor others